Convicted of Assaulting Husband. Lucy Parker, colored, was sent to jail for two months by Judge Kimball of the Police Court today, in default of $20 fine, charged with assaulting John Parker, her husband, with a bed slat, at their home, the evening of January 19. Witnesses testified that Parker came into his home the day of the assault in a drunken condition and began abusing his wife, kicking and cuffing her about the room. As her husband approached her with his hand in his pocket, the wife stated, she thought he was going to draw a knife, and she hit him with a bed slat. Parker was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital, where he has been under treatmen: for the past week. His injuries consisted of about a dozen cuts and abrasions about the face and head, and for a time it was said his condition was serious.

REV. DR. J. G. BUTLER'S BIRTH-DAY ANNIVERSARY.

The eighty-second birthday anniversary Luther Place Memorial Church, was observed yesterday by special sermons. In the morning Dr. Butler spoke from the text, Psalm, xxi:5-9, in which David speaks of having served God from his youth down to old age. God's word, said the speaker, honors old age, but one of "Trust torney, J. E. Collins. God after you have done your duty." At the evening service Dr. Butler, indulged in reminiscences. He thought, he said, he had made no mistake in choosing the ministry, nor in choosing the Lutheran ministry, in which church he was born. Although a Lutheran, he declared, he is no bigot. He believes in the great work of unifying the polyglot Lutheran 'Church in Am_rica, which is preaching the gospel in a dozen languages. He is in hearty accord with the catholic and scriptural doctrinal basis of the general synod, Lutheran Church, He believes, he said, he made no mistake in coming to this city, where his whole ministerial life has been spent.

When He Came to Washington. In 1849, when he came to Washington, there was but one small English Lutheran church. At the first communion twenty-five persons participated. This was St. Paul's Church, at 11th and H streets, which Dr. Butler served for twenty-three years. The lot for the new Memorial Church, at 14th street and Vermont avenue, was purchased for $8,000, Bequests Made by Mrs. Christiana Queen, Widow of Admiral.

widow of Rear Admiral Walter W. Queen, late of the -United States Navy, was filed today in the Probate Court by Attorneys Wilton J. Lambert and Edward McLean, together with a petition for probate on behalf of William Gordon Crawford, one of the executors named in the will, asking that the document be admitted to probate as a will of both real and personal property. The estate appears to consist of about $200,000.

The document is dated October 23, 1903, and provides for the following bequests: Christine Q. Owen and C. Dickson Beale Crawford, grand-nieces, $30,000 each; to Walter Q. Raborg, a nephew, $8,000; to her nephews, William A. Raborg, Charles W. Raborg and Pierce Crosby Raborg, $1,000 each; to Hully Raborg, a son of a deceased nephew. George Raborg, $500; to H. Raborg Owen, $5,000, together with all the Nicaragua canal stock owned by deceased. The residue of the property is left to Christine Q. Owen and C. Dickson Beale Crawford, share and share alike. It is further provided that all of the property shall be taken in possession and control by William Gordon Crawford and John Bassett Moore, with power to sell the same free from obligations on the part of the purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money, and the proceeds to be distributed according to the legacies enumerated. Many people marvel at the effects of leaving off coffee and using Postum in its place, but there is nothing marvelous about it - only common sense.

Coffee contains a drug-Caffeine-which is a destroyer of digestion and the nervous system.

Postum is a rebuildermade of wheat (no drug or medication) which contains the "vital phosphates" that repair the damage done by coffee. What's the use to keep
